- Both players do not have to be from the same faction but otherwise must keep to normal Army Construction rules with the following exceptions, No more than 3 NCUs Combined, 3 Free Attachment points each.
- All players are responsible for providing all models, cards, dice, measuring devices, terrain, tokens, trays, and any other items required for play.
- Painted armies are not mandatory but strongly encouraged.

All lists will be checked prior to the event by the TO who reserves the right to deny any list that they feel is “un-sporting” or does not follow any theme of the event.*

What You Should Be Bringing:

- Your Miniatures for both lists. (painted is NOT mandatory but is recommended).
- Full and in-date Tactics Decks for both lists, you can print these from the official Website. <https://asoiaf.cmon.com/>.
- Dice (D6), Ruler (Inches) and 2d Terrain, Tokens, This should all be official as it all comes in the starter sets but replacements can be provided if needed just speak to a TO.
- Objective Card Decks (Both the Effects and Secret).
- Tray for army transport during the day (highly recommended for moving between games and tables).
- A Gentleman's (or Lady's) attitude to great day of toy war!

Army List Submission:

Players will need to submit them via email to DLSWargaming@outlook.com in a format of your choosing. It is recommended that all players use the official app “War council” That is available on android and Apple App stores.

Once submitted you may get a confirmation on if your list is okay or if any minor changes need to be made. Deadline is Wednesday the 11th November at 11.59pm, Lists will be locked and then give the organisers time to look at lists and players to edit if required, but also for you all to spy on your opponents and begin your private planning and strategy.

Please Email DLSWargaming@outlook.com if you have any questions or need any assistance.

The Games:

The following Scenarios will be the ones that shall be used on the day as they are in the main rulebook.

Awards:

The day will consist of 3 games, using Stats.Com tournament scoring system on a variety of tables with awards at end of the day given for the following categories, and others depending on player count and tickets sold.

- 1st, 2nd, 3rd Places overall
"When you play the game of thrones you win, or you die. There is no middle ground"
- Best Painted Army (As Chosen By Player Vote) (Winner of Saturday cannot enter, if Applicable)
"He was a painter. A painter who only used red."
- The Wooden Spoon (Last Place)
"If you think this has a happy ending, you haven't been paying attention!"
- Players choice, most just and sporting knight of the realm
"He charged me to be a good knight. To defend the weak and the innocent."

Tournament Special Rules:

The following Rules are being imposed upon the entire tournament in the interest of theme and a good experience for all involved for a well-rounded and overall good time with minimal "Feels Bad" moments.

- All Terrain is to be Randomly Generated as per the rulebook.
- Discuss with your opponent your units and their abilities as you deploy them, I know we can see each other lists, but it just helps newer players and those who may not have good "APP Service" or familiar with your faction.
- Fill the score submissions together and double check them before submission.
- Do not be offended if any player asks to check a rule / card in any way from either yourself or a TO.
- Always check the rulebook first, TOs will tell you to do that first in any case and are there to solve interpretations.
- Fully painted armies are not required however; Miniatures must be either official or clear representations. ie a unit of Hedge Knights cannot be Tully Cav to prevent confusion. Please check with TO ref proxy models conversions.
- The teams of 3 will have their scores combined in order to determine the winners of the team prize.
